

House Resolution No. 2405

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State educators who have proven down through the years to be highly effective in helping their young charges obtain the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary to become lifelong learners and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Anita Willeke has attained considerable distinction as an elementary special education teacher at Northwood School in the Raytown C-2 School District; and

Whereas, on Friday, April 1, 2005, Anita Willeke enhanced her already impressive record of accomplishments when she was named as the Raytown School District 2005-2006 Teacher of the Year at the annual breakfast recognizing Building Teachers of the Year; and

Whereas, a leader among peers, Anita Willeke also is an innovative leader of students who is willing to try new methods and practices in teaching in order to maximize educational opportunities; and

Whereas, the Raytown C-2 School District educates nearly nine thousand students through the expertise of approximately six hundred and fifty certificated staff in fifteen facilities spread throughout Jackson County; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives pauses in its diverse legislative endeavors in order to recognize such outstanding Show-Me State teachers as Anita Willeke:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Anita Willeke as the Raytown C-2 School District Teacher of the Year and to convey this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Anita Willeke of the Raytown C-2 School District.
